

NEWSLETTER MARCH 2019

Dear readers,

Here is the second newsletter!

First of all, we have some information on the upcoming conference. Whereas we previously announced that the conference would take place in Cologne, we now would like to let you know that the 5th International Conference on Time Perspectives will take place in Vilnius, Lithuania. The preliminary dates are scheduled for 13-17th July, 2020, right before the 32nd International Congress of Psychology in Prague (Czech Republic), announced below. More information will follow.

The Media team has worked to update you again on the announcements for conferences, special issues, and the latest publications. We hope you find this information useful.

We would like to hear from you for information to place in the next newsletter. Let us know about any news regarding publications, events, or other interesting time-related matters. Don't hesitate to contact us.

Follow us on Twitter (@TP_int) and Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/InternationalTP/>)

Kind regards,
